The Rev. Archibald R. Mansfield, D.D.

Floating Church of Our Saviour, 1843.

ANNUAL REPORT of the
BOARD OF MANAGERS
of the
SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE of New York

THE year 1930 finds the Seamen's Church Institute of New York 87 YEARS OLD, and the Superintendent, the Rev. Archibald R. Mansfield, D.D., 35 YEARS "ON THE JOB." Let us celebrate this happy occasion by taking a look back to the "old days" and then let us tell you something of what has been going on this past year.

In 1895 the Institute was known as The Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York and that title stayed with us until

"Thirty-five Years 'on the Job' "

1906. The Society owned and occupied for religious and secular work three buildings: the Floating Church of Our Saviour, the Mission House at 34 Pike Street, and the Church of the Holy Comforter, Mission House and rectory combined, at the corner of Houston and West Streets. It owned the building at 52 Market Street, which was leased as a boarding house for seamen and known as the "New Sailors' Home." It also rented mission rooms at 21 Coenties Slip for the use of the canal boat population and barge men. The staff consisted of three Chaplains, three Colporteurs and three Janitors,—nine in all. The expenses for the year 1895 amounted to $13,519.78 and the income was $10,975.67. The total attendance at the reading rooms for that year was about 107,000. Contrast the present condition of the Institute: a gross current expenditure of over $800,000 and no deficit; 486,219 lodgings registered in 1930, and in addition, many thousands making use of the Institute's facilities daily. We have a staff of over 260 employees as against the nine who did the work in 1895. To properly maintain the building as to replacements and structural upkeep requires a very large sum annually. All of this is only made possible through the continued assistance of our loyal contributors, and only through their increasing aid can we come through 1931 without a deficit, because the legitimate demands of the unemployed seamen showed a continual rise through the latter part of 1930 and unquestionably will show the same through 1931.

So far as the fabric of the Institute is concerned, the outstanding events were the completion and Dedication of the Chapel of Our Saviour on the 22nd of May, and later in the year the opening of the thirteenth floor dormitory.

And let us pause here for a moment and note the long period of faithful service of five members of the Board of Managers: John H. Morrison, 1877; Edmund Lincoln Baylies, 1885; Benjamin T. Van Nostrand, 1887; Frank T. Warburton, 1888; and the Rev. Dr. Henry Lubeck, 1889.

The Institute is concerned with the spiritual and social welfare of seamen. A year such as the one just ended taxes our resources to the utmost. All of our departments responded with increasing efforts and unflagging zeal to meet these exceptional conditions. In 1930 we provided 486,219 Lodgings, an increase of 68,607 over the previous year; 331,261 Meals Served, increase of 852; 996,766 sales at the Soda Fountain, an increase of 174,724; 38,686 customers patronized the Barber and Tailor Shop and Laundry, an increase of 10,341; 7,690 deposits made in our Seamen's Funds Department, an increase of 805; $609,115.45 deposited, an increase of $1,751.10. There were increases in the number of transmissions and the amount of money transmitted. There were gratifying increases in the statistics of the Merchant Marine School.

The Business Office, General Stores, Baggage Room, Barber Shop, Engineering, Hotel, Restaurant, Soda Fountain and Tailor Shop comprise the Business Department. Those who may be interested in the financial operation of these commercial departments are referred to the Treasurer's report on Income and Expenditure on page fourteen which shows in detail the results of the operations of these various activities.

and the discipline has been better than in any previous year, and this in the face of insistent and carefully pre-meditated attempts on the part of Communists, I. W. W.'s and other radicals to create discontent among the seamen patronizing the Institute.

As was to be expected, our Employment work has fallen off fifty per cent. We are doing everything possible to keep our men from getting discouraged and despondent. As a natural consequence of so many men being out of work, our Relief Loan Department is almost overwhelmed with continuous calls for assistance. Seamen are often broke but rarely beggars. The object of this Department is primarily to furnish Relief of various kinds in the time of need. In order, however, that the applicant may maintain his self-respect, the Relief is given on a loan basis so that those desiring to do so may repay the amount of the loan. This policy is more and more appealing to the man who desires to be self-respecting and self-supporting, as is demonstrated by the fact that many men have already repaid their loans. Of course many do not. Relief in the form of lodgings, food, carfare, clothing, etc., has been given to 10,992 men. Nineteen per cent of the loans have been returned.

Here are some items which may interest you—our Baggage Master and his assistants have handled and rehandled 237,224 pieces of baggage. From 8,000 to 12,000 men enter the building daily and there have been but 24 arrests during the year. Over a million dollars a year is handled in cash, checks and payrolls. THE LOOK-OUT spreads the news about the Institute. It tells people of our needs and should be credited with nearly $23,000 for the year which has been received in answer to appeals through that agency. Our three Chaplains conduct regularly appointed Services in the Institute Chapel, and in the recreation rooms of Marine Hospitals on Ellis Island and at Stapleton, Staten Island. They have officiated at 98 funerals, 13 weddings, and have baptized 18, and have made hundreds of visits to hospitals, jails, vessels, etc. 2,861 inquiries have been received about Missing Seamen and 401 have been located. The Entertainment provided this year, Talkies, Vaudeville, etc., has done much to keep up the morale of the men.

The Superintendent has called especial attention to the invaluable work accomplished by the Seamen's Church Institute Associations, eighteen in number, composed of women in the States of New York, Connecticut and New Jersey, to whom we are deeply indebted for assistance rendered to the Institute in innumerable ways. They have jointly contributed $37,176.20—the largest single gift was $12,000 for Movietone equipment and reconstruction in connection with installation. The activities are numerous and varied, enabling groups and individuals to render many kinds of service according to their ability.

In these times of unusual conditions and demands the order of the day for the Superintendent and his able helpers is FULL STEAM AHEAD! Their tasks have been approached intelligently and vigorously. All of this is gratefully acknowledged. Come down to 25 South Street and see what is being done. A visit will help you and encourage you to help others.

"Full Steam Ahead!"

IN MEMORY OF

If it is true that "service to the living is the best memorial" to those who have gone beyond, then surely our Annex Building with its numerous useful memorial objects offers an opportunity to perpetuate the memory of relatives and friends through constant service which fills a real need. Will YOU subscribe to a Memorial to commemorate some life of service? By so doing you will help to reduce our BUILDING DEBT to the extent of the amount subscribed.

A Typical Scene in Our Game Rooms. Drawn by Able Seaman Robert E. Pearson.

LEGACIES TO THE INSTITUTE

You are asked to remember in your will this important work for Seamen to whom every Landsman owes such a deep debt of gratitude. Please notice the exact title and address of the Society.

The Institute has been greatly aided by this form of generosity. No precise words are necessary to a valid legacy to the corporation. The following clause, however, may be suggested:

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give and bequeath to "Seamen's Church Institute of New York," a corporation incorporated under the Laws of the State of New York, the sum of..... Dollars to be used by it for its corporate purposes.

If land or any specific personal property such as bonds, stocks, etc., is given a brief description of the property should be inserted instead of the words "the sum of.....Dollars."

It is important that a will or a codicil to a will be drawn correctly. Therefore consult your lawyer.
