BETTY HORNSBY AND ETHEL YOUNG GREEN ENTERTAIN MEN OF THE BLACK SEA.

Several of the officers and crew of the British oil tanker Black Sea, which was destroyed by fire in New York Harbor, have found refuge in the Seamen's Institute, No. 25 South street. The Misses Hornsby and Younggreen, social workers, help to entertain them. The girls are reading a letter written by First Mate George Thompson (right, with cap) to his family in England.

Heroes in Chinese Shipwreck

BROOM, chief radio officer, is shown in the radio room. Broom heard the first calls for help when the Lien Shing began to sink.
