Sunday morn Aug 15/75

Service partly held on the pier, but in consequence of the intense heat & absence of all breeze, the Missionary Rev Mr Maguire invited the congregation to follow him to the room where the service was conducted and a very excellent & earnest sermon preached which was listened to with most marked attention by all present.
The congregation numbered about 65: among them several girls & quite a large proportion of boys - all who were on the pier at first followed to the room & remained after the sermon to receive papers &c -

We very urgently need some better place for holding the service at this point, as it is not unfrequently the case, as this morning, that there is no <sup>near</sup> boys, the awning of which, can be made use of for shelter either from heat or rain - and the room is much too small close, for as great a crowd as we usually have, at this season of the year.

The absence of a sheltered place for the service, entails not only absentees suffering occasionally in the Missions any, but very materially diminishes the number who attend at all, or at any rate, who remain throughout the service -

Beautiful bright & sunny morning Service held on pier 6 opposite the mission room. an unusually large Congregation present numbering at least 200 Hundred men & children. quite an interruption was caused by an Irish Roman Catholic, we had to suspend the services for about 10 minutes. until a policeman came and arrested him. he was afterwards taken to the Station House and from thence to the Jefferson Market Police Court. where he was sentenced to two months imprisonment and find security of three Hundred dollars to keep the peace - on the evidence

Monday Morn. Oct. 10th 1875 A cloudy day. Service on the wharf in front of our rooms.
Our singer, Mr. Clark, we regret to hear, had suddenly died during the week and we missed very much his valuable aid. He was ever faithful in the discharge of his duty and will be remembered long by all who knew him as upright devoted Christian.

A congregation of abt.
80 were gathered on the wharf & listened with considerable attention to the powerful appeal of our Missionary Rev. Mr. McQuire.
Relig. Papers were as usual distributed after Service.

about 160 came for books

Sunday Afternoon Oct 10th 1875

Services on the pier for Cooks & Lap Congregation number from 100 to 150, large part being Cookmen & their families - After the services by the Missionary, 130 came to the room to whom were distributed 14 Eng Testaments, 15 Prayer books & 2 Miscellaneous books, with tracts & papers.

We missed the strong hearty voice of our late Chorister Pat Cook, who has been so suddenly taken from the work in which he was heartily interested - We may be able to procure a more accomplished singer, but will hardly find a more sincere earnest worker
